ADP TotalSource Opens 5 New Offices Professional Employer Organization Continues Growth Into New Markets

MIAMI, Feb. 26, 2003 – ADP TotalSource, an ADP (NYSE: ADP) division and one of the nation's largest Professional Employer Organizations (PEOs), today announced it has opened five new offices.

With the addition of new offices in Princeton, N.J.; San Antonio; Austin, St. Louis and Salt Lake City, ADP TotalSource now has 27 offices in 15 states. The company currently serves more than 3,700 clients and 83,000 worksite employees.

"We have targeted these cities because they have an abundance of growing businesses and entrepreneurs," said Carlos Rodriguez, president of ADP TotalSource. "Our services are a proven solution to the human resources and administrative challenges faced by growing companies. And having developed strong relationships with leading providers of health and welfare benefits in these regions makes our offering even more attractive to employers that want to attract and retain the best employees."

ADP TotalSource provides small and medium-sized businesses with outsourced human resources, employee benefits, risk and safety, and payroll and tax administration services. This enables business owners to focus on core activities and control the costs and time demands associated with employment and human resources administration.
